STUDIO 26 GALLERY RECOMMENDS CHRISTINE CARRIER ARTS

August 17th, 2016 New York, NY - Studio 26 Gallery is delighted to recommend Christine Carrier Arts as an art world concierge, strategic consultant, and business partner. Christine Carrier's marvelous work first became known to us when she was the producer for Red Dot Art Fair Miami that took place in Midtown Miami during the Miami Art Basel week back in 2012. As this was Studio 26's first time participating in an Art Basel fair, we needed guidance. With grace and acumen, Christine advised us through the process. Her expertise was apparent to us as well as her client services, skills, and knowledge; because of Christine we became a regular participant at Miami Red Dot.

We were fortunate enough to work with Christine again in 2015. Together, we collaborated to create a show at Studio 26 Gallery. Christine took this project by the reins and carefully and brilliantly curated the show named "12 Nights of Openings". This project was an absolute success. Every night had its own vision. A variety of artists and galleries would take a night or two to create their own show. The last two nights culminated "East meets West" that showcased the juxtaposition of an East Village artist with a West Village artist. She created her own miniature art fair complete with a diverse group of four artists each showcasing their own styles and skill levels. Christine's hands on approach, superb professionalism and expert project management skills allowed for a smooth and seamless installation and opening. Each of the twelve nights, the guests engrossed themselves within her curation and enjoyed the entertainment she so skillfully organized. She utilized her connections to fully exploit the "12 Nights of Openings". She collaborated with Revolt magazine as a media partner and St. Jude Hospital as a charity partner.

Christine's prowess of the art market as well as the art fairs permitted us to gain entry to the elite art fairs. Christine amplified our potential. Through her guidance, she aided us to gain entry to the elite art fairs. Her credibility and value is thanks to her superb knowledge of the art market as well as the art fairs. We are thankful for Christine. Studio 26 Gallery owes it to Christine that we are now partnered with Art Miami Group - one of the top art fair franchises in the world.

We give Christine Carrier Arts our highest recommendations. Without any reservation or hesitation, we laud her for her talent. If you chose to work with Christine, anticipate to have your expectations surpassed. She is not only capable of aiding you to success, but establishing your brand, expanding your market, and building high quality clientele.

Best regards,
Marina Reiter, Studio 26 Gallery, Director and Founder
